Public Transport

Boundary House is a short walk away from Uxbridge underground station, which provides access to Central London by both the Piccadilly and Metropolitan Lines. Come out of the station and turn left, walk along the pedestrian walkway until you reach Vine Street, cross at the zebra crossing and turn right past Randall's department store. Cricket Field Road is on the left and Boundary House is in front of you on the right.

Parking

Limited parking is available to the rear of the building. This must be booked prior to arrival. Alternative parking is available within the Pavilions centre.
